Subject: Re: Just who are they?

In a message dated 96-04-27 21:56:35 EDT, you write:

>You suggest that you know these 2 people in Georgia who were arrested, >and that you've talked to them recently. Well, who were they? What were >they out to prove?

JJ & Helen Johnson know these two very well, Jeff Randall has never met Bob Starr but has talked to him on the phone several times and has struck up a friendship with Bob.

I have talked to JJ, Helen and Jeff they all have said that these two are not the type to have done what they are accused of doing. I know JJ, Helen and Jeff very well and I trust their judgment completely, the mass media in my view is completely un-trustworthy , as they have proved over and over again, the BATF, FBI and Janet Reno and company are worse.

Both these men have been charged with Conspiracy to build explosive devices and possession of un-registered explosive material. Notice there is no charge for having a actual bomb? One man was and electrician the other a plumber, so I guess between them they had pipes and wires and electrical components. If one of them reloaded their own ammo, then you have a quote "bomb factory". It look like to me that CNN had on display a nice selection of pipe nipples in plastic bags with pretty little tags.

Bob Starr has been to talk with the FBI and BATF to let them know who he was and the militia purpose, with in a word is the Constitution. He was not a hot head or hiding in the shadows. He was in the light of day.

They were accused of saying that they had plans to build bombs and distribute bombs to militia members by a informant. I ask Jeff Randall if Bob Starr had ever discussed or hinted to him anything about bombs or any class three weapons, Jeff answer was no not even once he never indicated to him that he had any interest in the subject.

As far as I'm concerned these guys were Constitutional Militia People like many I have met, all are law abiding Americans. It is not these two men who have something to prove it is the FBI and BATF.

PS: Notice that I and several people put their name to what they write so everyone knows where it came. I may put my foot in my mouth sometimes but at least you will know who's foot it is in who's mouth.
